

Parenting tips

Solidarity

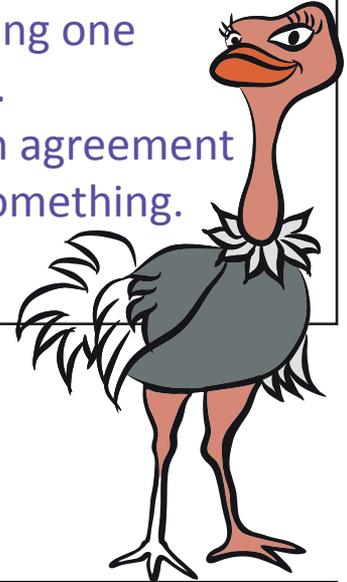

Did you know?

- Empathy for someone or belief in a cause are both reasons people come together in solidarity.
- Solidarity involves standing in agreement on something, working together for a common goal, or working collaboratively to accomplish something.

SOLIDARITY is...

Standing together,
supporting one another.

Acting in agreement about something.

Parents can help children feel solidarity with others by...

- Modeling empathy and supporting actions for people in need.
- Pointing out how groups of people come together to support a cause they believe to be important.
- Helping them to see opportunities to join with others to support positive community actions such as a neighborhood clean-up efforts.

Discussion starters to use in talking with your child about solidarity...

What causes do you care about?

How could friends and neighbors show solidarity to a victim of tragedy?

How could people in a neighborhood show solidarity?

How do families show solidarity for individual family members in need?